"boys." His dispatches had some effect, and it was visible in Wheeling, for as late as 7 o'clock last night Democrats here refused to concede Harrison's election. Basing their claims on Briee's dispatches, they were wildly asserting that Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa and even Kansas were doubtful and that Cleveland's election was sure. They realized later that Brice was simply carrying out the established Democratic rule of claiming everything and conceding nothing, so long as there was a glimmer of hope.

In Illinois, Minnesota, Iona and Nebraska the Democrats have made and Nebraska the Democrats have made large gains upon the lines foreshadowed in the recent tariff debate in the House. These gains, though encouraging, have not been sufficient to offset the Repub-lican majorities in those States, and have therefore been of no material advantage to the National Democratic ticket. From the latest advices it is probable that the Republican gains in the South and East will exceed all expectation. A careful compilation of Congressional returns received at this hour would indicate that the Republicans will control the next House by from 8 to 10 majority. The returns from the States of Texas, Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky, Georganic Constitution of the control of the con Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky, Geor-gia, West Virginia and Indiana will be examined with a special interest, aside from that attaching either to the Presi-dential contest or the straight Congresdential contest or the straight Congres-sional fight.
